Videos

Vote Yes for Aborigines	A documentary about the 1967 Referendum and the fight for citizenship rights for Aborigines. It marks the 40th anniversary of the occasion, celebrating its historical significance and contemporary relevance.
Mabo	Mabo tells the story of one of Australia's national heroes – Eddie Koiki Mabo, the Torres Strait Islander man who spearheaded the High Court challenge that overthrew the fiction of terra nullius.
Bush Mechanics	This off-beat series follows the exploits of a group of young Aboriginal men as they travel across the central desert in their clapped-out cars. Combining adventure, magic realism and a distinctive brand of indigenous humour, this program provides an insight into both contemporary and traditional Aboriginal culture.
Crookhat and the Kulunada	Three old men—Donald Akemarr Thompson, Alec Apetyarr Peterson and Casey Akemarr Holmes—travel by four-wheel drive out to a surprising strip of green bush in the desert, where a permanent spring feeds a large waterhole. We listen to their stories as they prepare their camp—stories rich in knowledge of the place and its history.
Bran Nue Dae	Bran Nue Dae is a feature film adaptation of the 1990 stage musical, and tells the coming of age story of an Aboriginal teenager on a road trip in the late 1960s.
The Apology	The film begins two days before the Apology to the Stolen Generations by the Australian Parliament on 13 February 2008 as people began to gather in Canberra. It includes interviews, stories and many moments including the first Welcome to Country in the Federal Parliament.
First Australians: The Untold Story of Australia	The series explores what unfolds when the oldest living culture in the world is overrun by the world's greatest empire. Over seven episodes, First Australians depicts the true stories of individuals—both black and white—caught in Australia's most transformative period of history.

Kanyini	Kanyini explores the philosophy and the life of Bob Randall—an Aboriginal man from Mutitjulu, a town beside Uluru in Central Australia. Bob Randall is a 'Tjilpi' or special teaching uncle of the Yankunytjatjara people and a member of the Stolen Generations.
Lousy Little Sixpence	Lousy Little Sixpence tells the story of Aboriginal children, now Elders and representatives for an entire generation, who were stolen from their families by the Australian government and turned into unpaid servants for white families. The title refers to the amount of pocket money the indentured workers were supposed to be given - but never received - while their wages were managed by their 'employers', on behalf of the Aborigines Protection Board.
Jimmy Little's Gentle Journey	Jimmy Little's Gentle Journey traces the extraordinary life and times of the popular Aboriginal entertainer and activist. From a tragic childhood, to star of the Australian popular music scene, Jimmy Little proved to be both a survivor and a pioneer.
The Secret Country: The First Australians Fight Back	The Secret Country: The First Australians Fight Back is a 1985 television documentary made for the British Central Independent Television company by writer/presenter John Pilger. It details the persecution of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples throughout Australia's history.
Pemulwuy: A War of Two Laws Part 1 Part 2	Pemulwuy: A War of Two Laws charts the history of Australia's first ever Aboriginal resistance fighter. From his first encounter with the British in Botany Bay and 12-year war against the establishment, to his eventual demise in 1802 in Parramatta where he was beheaded.
